CORE ENGAGEMENT OFFER (INSPIRE)	Attract individuals and groups into projects and programmes, to raise awareness of our organisation. A core engagement could be at school, a PRU, YJS referral or employment programme but is specific to the individual. It will be a space or time that engagement/attendance can be controlled and is likely to occur.	School, PRU, or youth justice workers requesting mentoring for diversionary activity.	Health referral schemes or projects that are run to increase physical activity.	DWP projects that forms the foundation or first phases for the engagement.
COMMUNITY ACTIVITY (MOTIVATE)	Create a number of local initiatives that can act as a stepping stone to increase engagement and opportunities. For some individuals their journey will start and end at this point as the focus will be around regular participation.	Participation at a StreetGames style session.	Turning up at a community event to support delivery or take part in additional opportunities from the core offer.	Youth employment Schemes or turning up at a community event to support delivery. Taking part in additional opportunities from the core offer.
CORE TRAINING (EDUCATE)	Provide employment and training opportunities that enable the individual to progress into the next phases of their career.	Progressing into full time post 16 education. Attending an activator qualification to support a local StreetGames session.	Attending a Mental Health training course that can be used to increase employability.	Undertaking a qualification or functional skill that will increase employment prospects.
